

Fredrik Carstens

Deutsche Bank

Fredrik Carstens is co-Head of ASL based in London and is responsible for all Client Sales and Management activities in Europe, Middle East, Africa and Asia.

He moved to Deutsche Bank as part of the 2009 purchase of the business from Dresdner Bank where he worked in a similar same role for 8 years.

Prior to joining Dresdner Bank, Fredrik spent 6 years with Deutsche Bank responsible for developing its agency lending programme with European clients.

Before that he spent 10 years with J.P. Morgan in various capital market positions in Europe and New York. In Frankfurt he was responsible for the bank's short-term money market trading business.

In 1991 he relocated to London to set up the investment management side of JP Morgan's international securities lending programme and worked to develop the bank's cash management product.

Fredrik holds a Bachelor of Science in International Business Administration from the

Clearstream

16th GSF-Summit 18-19 January 2012

University of Lund in Sweden and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Southern California, Los Angeles.
