

Jason Granet

Goldman Sachs A.M.

Jason Granet is head of International Liquidity Portfolio Management in London. He is responsible for the management of international money market and short duration portfolios.

Prior to this, Jason was co-head of the Secured Funding team on the Central Funding desk, beginning in 2007. In that role, Jason and his team were responsible for all financing transactions and financing counterparty relationships across the Investment Management Division.

Jason joined GSAM in 2004, where he previously worked in the Fixed Income team's portfolio and risk strategy group.

Prior to joining GSAM, he was an analyst in fixed income operations at Goldman Sachs & Co. since 2000.

He received a BA in Economics from the University of Michigan in 2000.
