

Jochen Metzger

Deutsche Bundesbank

Jochen Metzger (48) is Head of the Bundesbank's Department Payments and Settlement Systems, at the Central Office in Frankfurt am Main. He represents the Bundesbank at the Eurosystems Payments and Settlement Systems Committee (PSSC) and the Target 2 Securities Advisory Group, the G10-Committee on Payments and Settlement Systems and is Responsible Senior Officer for cooperative oversight.

Since May 2009, Jochen is a Member of the TARGET2-Securities Programme Board.

Jochen Metzger has been a member of the Bundesbank's staff since 1988 and previously held positions in the markets, payments and infrastructure areas of the bank. He has also served as the Bundesbank Representative for Latin America at the German Embassy in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

From 2000 to 2003, he was a Senior Policy Advisor and member of the secretariat of the Financial Stability Forum at the BIS in Basel.

He holds a Master degree in economics from the University of Mannheim.

---