

Kevin Cook

Autumn Capital

Kevin Cook is a founding partner of Autumn Capital Partners, a financial consultancy business with a focus on the hedge fund sector.

Autumn offers expertise in the analysis and execution of a wide range of hedge fund and cash management strategies. Autumn's clients range from large, top tier European hedge funds through to smaller, emerging managers.

Kevin is principally responsible for the management, development and direction of Autumn's business in addition to being heavily involved in the legal, structural and operational aspects of the firm's mandates.

Prior to founding Autumn in 2009, Kevin spent four years at Pentagon Capital Management Plc, a London based multi-billion dollar multi-strategy hedge fund manager, where he was a member of the investment committee. Whilst at Pentagon, Kevin led principal investments with a value of in excess of $500 million.

Kevin is a qualified solicitor of the Supreme Court of England and Wales and started his career as a lawyer at Weil, Gotshal & Manges, working in both their London and New York offices.

Clearstream

16th GSF-Summit 18-19 January 2012

Whilst at Weil, Kevin advised global private equity funds and institutions on a broad range of corporate finance transactions, with a value in excess of $7.5 billion.

Kevin holds a bachelor's degree in Law from the University of Manchester and post-graduate legal qualifications with distinction from Nottingham Law School.
