

Michael Manna

Barclays Capital

Michael Manna is a Managing Director and Head of Fixed Income Financing and Money Market Sales within the Prime Services Distribution team for EMEA. The team is responsible for Barclays short-term secured and unsecured funding flows, as well as providing specialist coverage to clients such as hedge funds, insurance companies, pension funds, asset managers and security lenders.

He joined Barclays Capital in 2009 from BNP Paribas where he was a member of the Short-Term Interest Rate Sales team, covering repos, cash sales and short-term interest rate swaps.

Previously, he spent six years at Empower Interactive, a telecoms software company, responsible for sales and product marketing.

He started his career at Bear Stearns in New York on the repo trading desk between 1994 and 2000, moving to the UK in 1996.

He has a BSc in Business Administration.
