Oscar Huettner

BondLend

Oscar is responsible for the design, development and marketing of Bondlend's global fixed income platform. He brings over 25 years of trading and management experience in the US, European and Asian repo markets.

Prior to joining BondLend he spent seventeen years at Barclays Capital in London and New York. During that time he established their European Repo Desk, RMBS financing operation and Structured Repo Book. He was a founding member of the European Repo Council and has served on a variety of industry committees responsible for finding technology based trading solutions for the market. Before Barclays he set up IBJ's European Repo Desk and traded US Treasury and RMBS repo at DLJ and Salomon Brothers.

Oscar graduated from Lafayette College with an BA in Economics and earned his MBA at the University of Pittsburgh.
