

Richard Glen

Clearstream Banking London

Richard Glen is a vice-president within the Global Securities Financing (GSF) Sales and Broker-Dealer Relations department at Clearstream Banking.

Based in London, he leads the day-to-day triparty sales and relationship management and client implementation team (repo, securities lending and collateral management) responsible for clients based in the UK, Ireland and in North America.

Richard joined Clearstream in 2005, working in the Origination / Global Securities Financing Sales team as a relationship manager for triparty collateral management clients in the UK as well as for inter-dealer brokers.

Prior to this, Richard spent 9 years at Dresdner Bank AG in Frankfurt, working in the sales and relationship management area of the Transaction Banking Division, as well as 2 years at BGC Partners in London as a senior relationship manager.

Richard holds a BSc in International Business Studies and German from Aston University in Birmingham.
