

Thomas Gerke

K+S

Thomas Gerke is Senior Group Treasury Manager and has been working for K+S Aktiengesellschaft since 2001.

He is responsible for the operational risk management of foreign exchange, interest rates, liquidity and commodities. It's one of his tasks to develop measures and strategies to manage the afore mentioned risks on a group level. Due to expansion of the K+S group in the last years, he has also focused on financing structures and alternatives for investments of excess liquidity.

He has a degree in Economy and Administration from the University of Kassel.
