

GSF Summit
19 – 20 January 2011

clearstream | DEUTSCHE BÖRSE
GROUP

Edward Corral Morgan Stanley

Ed Corral is an Executive Director at Morgan Stanley. Ed is responsible for Tri-Party Repo globally for the Firm. Responsibilities include; representing Morgan Stanley on the U.S. Tri-Party Repo Task Force Reform effort sponsored by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, enhancing Morgan Stanley's Tri-Party Repo internal and external infrastructure, managing the Firm's external Tri-Party Repo agents, supporting new business development efforts, and contributing to the optimal secured funding of the Firm's balance sheet.

Prior to joining Morgan Stanley in May, 2009, Ed worked the previous 20 years at JP Morgan Chase & Co. and its predecessor firms. Ed held a variety of different positions while at JP Morgan Chase & Co., including; Global Head of Clearance & U.S. Tri-Party Repo, U.S. Regional Manager for International Securities Clearance & Collateral Management, Global Head of American Depository Receipts, and Global Head of Finance for Corporate Trust.

Ed received an MBA in Finance from New York University in 2003 as well as a Diploma in Financial Management from NYU in 1996. Ed received a B.A. from Binghamton University in 1987. Ed has both his Series 7 & 63.