

GSF Summit
19 – 20 January 2011

Silvia Marques de Brito e Silva
Central Bank of Brazil

Silvia Marques de Brito e Silva is the Deputy Head of the Financial System Regulation Department at the Central Bank of Brazil and coordinates studies on prudential regulation, accounting, and auditing. She is a certified accountant and concluded her master degree in Accounting and Finance at the University of Southampton, United Kingdom, in 2002. She has represented the Central Bank in international forums which include the Accounting Task Force of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS), Mercosul Subgroup IV on Financial Services, and the Brazilian Accounting Standards Committee (CPC).