Real Name Financial Transaction

In accordance with Article 3 Paragraph 3 of the Act on Real Name Financial Transactions and Confidentiality, no one shall perform financial transactions in the real name of another person or a business entity for the purpose of concealing illegal assets, money laundering, terrorist financing, evading compulsory execution or other act of manipulating laws, and violators may be sentenced to a maximum of five years in prison and/or KRW50 million in fines.

I acknowledge that I have been provided with sufficient explanation as to the aforementioned information and fully understood the explanation. I further confirm that any and all financial transactions to be performed by me going forward do not fall into the category of such prohibited financial transaction conducted under borrowed name.

In case of any trade account opening with securities companies, I understand that the above explanation will also be applied to such accounts. Therefore, I hereby provide acknowledgement that the aforementioned information is also applicable to securities trading account opened at securities companies on my behalf by [The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited, Seoul Branch]. I further authorise [The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited, Seoul Branch] to sign on my behalf on a letter or account opening to the same effect as above and give it to the securities company.

Statutory Deposit Insurance

The deposit in the cash account is protected by the Korea Deposit Insurance Corporation (KDIC) under the Depositor Protection Act. The KDIC provides coverage up to KRW 50 million per depositor (for the aggregate of all insured financial products with the bank), including principal and designated interest. In the event that the financial institution is declared bankrupt after the suspension of payments of its depository claims, the deposits (principal plus Designated Interest) will be covered by the KDIC up to KRW 50 million per individual depositor. "Designated Interest" refers to the lesser of the interest amount based on the contractual rate or the amount calculated by the rate determined by the KDIC considering the average interest rate on one-year term deposits or equivalent financial instruments offered by KDIC-insured financial institutions.

I hereby certify that I have been explained by [The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited, Seoul Branch] whether this financial product will be covered by the KDIC under the Depositor Protection Act in the event that this financial institution is declared bankrupt and how much the KDIC coverage limit will be (up to KRW50 million per depositor for the aggregate of principal and designated interest) and understood the explanation.

Acknowledged

Guidelines to Complete Required Information/Acknowledgement for Account Opening

We, HSBC Seoul, hereby provide more instructions or information to help clients/investors fill in the required information/acknowledgement for account opening. The instructions or information provided herein might be changed or altered without a pre-notice. In such a case, HSBC Seoul will communicate such a changes to clients immediately.

1. Account opening shall be made in each beneficial accounting entity's name. For example, in the fund's name and not in the fund manager's name. The investor shall be presumed to be the beneficial owner of the securities portfolio to be acquired in Korea. Accordingly, the account opening shall not be made in nominee or agency or intermediary's name. The investor's name is recorded as the (beneficial) shareholder in Korea.

In case of a legal entity investor: Both master fund and its feeder fund that have their own LEIs can open accounts in their names respectively. For master fund, LEIs of underlying feeder funds shall be provided and for feeder fund, LEI of master fund shall be provided.

The investor shall provide a copy of the document (e.g. certificate of incorporation, registry extract or official filing) submitted at the time of LEI application or the official documents issued within 1 year by government institutions which prove legal existence, the exact name of the LEI, establishment date and business classification. The investor's name shall exactly match with the name on the supporting documents. This exact name matching should be ensured across all supporting documents, such as the Power of Attorney, certificate of incorporation, etc. to be submitted for account opening in Korea. For example, if an investor's name includes a certain special symbol such as "-" or "®", the same symbol must be shown on the supporting document as well.

2. In case the supporting document (e.g. certificate of incorporation) does not show the establishment/incorporation date, another supporting document shall be provided to show the establishment/incorporation date. This document shall be certified as a true copy by a notary public in the country of jurisdiction of where the document is issued. A future establishment/incorporation date shall not be used, as HSBC does not open accounts for a fund/entity, which has not been launched or established yet.
3. This registered address shall also be inserted on the Power of Attorney and Consent Letter. Please ensure that the same address is used across all supporting documents.
4. Selection of "Pension Fund" is permitted only for a pension fund that is managed by a state institution. In such a case, a supporting document evidencing that the foreign investor is indeed a pension fund of a state-run institution is required. Regular pension fund of a company or corporation is not considered a "Pension Fund" and shall select instead "Private Collective Investment Scheme" as business classification in section 9.A.
5. Information under 9 (Business Classification of the Applicant), 12 (President or Legal Representative) and 13 (Business Nature) are mandatory in accordance with Article 10-4 of "Enforcement Decree of the Act on Reporting and Use of Certain Financial Transaction Information".
